

Publish your DLRK 2015 - Paper in a Special Issue of the Journal Aircraft Engineering and Aerospace Technology by Emerald Group Publishing !

- Emerald Group Publishing is a scholarly publisher of academic journals and books in engineering and other fields.
- The company manages a portfolio of more than 290 journals.
- It was founded in 1967 by a group of academics dissatisfied by the publishing outlets of the time.
- It has its headquarters in Bingley, United Kingdom and operates worldwide.
- Emerald follows the guidelines of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).
- Articles are archived with LOCKSS and Portico. DOIs are obtained from CrossRef.
- Emerald allows Green Open Access publishing. Author may voluntarily post their own version of the article that was submitted to the journal (pre-print) or the version of the article that has been accepted for publication (post-print) onto their own personal website or into their own institutional repository.
- Emerald uses ScholarOne (workflow management from submission and peer review to publication).

SCHOLARONE™

- As one of the first aeronautical engineering journals Aircraft Engineering and Aerospace Technology (AEAT) was started already in 1929, named just "Aircraft Engineering" until 1993.
- All journal content since 1929 (more than 14000 articles) is available online!
- AEAT is indexed by Thomson Reuters and has an Impact Factor (2014: 0.352).
- AEAT is indexed in Scopus. All recent articles are indexed in Google Scholar, CSA, EBSCO, INSPEC, ...
- Although a subscription based journal, AEAT should be visible online from all German universities.
- Editor: Dr. Askin T. Isikveren. Guest Editor: Prof. Dr. Dieter Scholz (info@ProfScholz.de).

How to submit your manuscript ?

- Consider to submit your DLRK2015-Paper as DGLR-Netzpublikation (if you have not already done so).
- Expand upon the existing work a little (e.g. new findings, conclusions etc.).
- Provide a clear reference in the acknowledgements of your AEAT-manuscript to your DLRK2015-Paper (Conference-CD or Netzpublikation).
- Adhere to AEAT's Author Guidelines (<http://goo.gl/aKCBPK>), submit manuscript (<http://goo.gl/0ca8uy>) and select in point (4) last entry under "please select the issue": DLRK 2015.
- There will be no pre-selection of manuscripts! All submissions are considered for publication, but:
- There is no guarantee that the manuscript will be accepted for publication. It depends on the outcome of the review process.
- * A Special Issue will be dedicated to the DLRK2015 if there is a sufficient number of accepted papers (≈ 8). Otherwise the papers will be published as part of a normal issue of the journal AEAT.
- After your paper is published, please contact DGLR to include "Metadaten und Verlinkung zum Paper eines anderen Verlages" in DLRK2015-Netzpublikation (see: <http://goo.gl/sTC63V>).
