INVITATION

First Annual Gerhard Sedlmayr Lecture

Gerhard Sedlmayr – Pioneer Aviator and his Commitment to Safety and Rescue

Andreas Sedlmayr FRAeS, Managing Director, AUTOFLUG GmbH

Date: Tuesday, 1st July 18:30

Location: Airbus Conference Center (ACC),
Airbus, Kreetslag 10, 21129 Hamburg

Do you still remember your first flight? The moment when the airplane lifted off the ground. Many of us will always remember our first experience of flying. Although nowadays we take flying for granted, about a century ago that was not the case.

Experience the era of the first aviation pioneers with us; it is thanks to their courage that we all have the opportunity to fly today. We are delighted, in collaboration with AUTOFLUG, to be able to invite you to the first Gerhard Sedlmayr lecture where Andreas Sedlmayr, the grandson of Gerhard will talk about the pioneering achievements of his grandfather.

The lecture will be followed by a reception.

Important. If you do not hold an Airbus security pass, please email susanne.altstaedt@airbus.com or telephone 040 743 72170 before 14:00 on Friday, 27th June. to register. Unfortunately we will not be able to process any pass requests received after this deadline.

On arrival at the Airbus Reception you will be required to show your passport or identity card. Failure to register or produce the required identity will mean that you cannot enter Airbus.
